THE PRESS OF PENNSYLVANIA ON THE SITUATION.

We hope and trust, for the sake of humanity, that civil war may be averted. Yet it were better to lose our lives than transmit to posterify such a government as Stevens, Sumner, Wade, and others of that ilk, would make this if they succeed in their hellish designs against the constituted authorities.—The Advocate, Ridgway, Elk County.

These things are stirring the great heart of the people, as well as they may. They are finding their interests trifled with—their Constitution derided—their halls of legislation filled with conspirators—their hopes blasted—their security menaced—and their country on the verge of another terrible civil war to keep power in the hands of the minority.—The Western Press, Mercer, Mercer County.

The people have waited patiently for this movement, and they now hope that the President will continue decisive measures to uphold his constitutional authority, and if possible, to curb the progress of the infamous Radical usurpation. Now that the President has made the issue, let him stand firm and the people will sustain him.—Democrat and Register, Mifflintown, Juniata County.

The Radicals in Congress have entered upon the desperote step of impeaching the President of the United States! In so startling an emergency, thinking men may well ask, "what are we coming to?" The answer is not at hand, but this may be taken as certain, that a much longer continuance of that party in power will result in general prostration and ruin, and the ultimate wreck of our institutions.—The Compiler, Gettysburg, Adams County.

We look upon this man Stanton as the true representative of the vices of the Radical faction—insolent brutal, cowardly and mendacious, and to hear it claimed that he and his associates, will conduct themselves as men of high honor, pure patriotism and true courage creates a feeling of indignant disgust in the minds of all good men. If the President pursues with firmness the course he has begun, and we feel assured that he will, the country will see an exhibit of low conduct in these wretched creatures which will astonish even them. We want to see the Radical Monster in all his hideousness, so that the people may strike it down forever—that the utter detestation for it of citizens of the United States may be expressed in such a manner, that no other such high-handed villainy shall trouble us again.—The Union, Wilkesbarre, Luzerne County.

There can be no question that the President will not shrink from the performance of his duty, and it is for the people now to come to the rescue, stop these infernal Congressional Jacobins and villains in their mad, damnable crusade against the Chief Executive of the nation, and if necessary hurl by force these bold, bad men from power. The time for talking has passed, the time for action has arrived. The excitement in the capital of the country is great, and timid men there are dumbfounded, not knowing what to do. But there is one man to whom we look for relief from the dangers which environ our beloved country. He can bring the Ship of State safely through these troubled waters. That man is Andrew Johnson. In him we have faith, and may God defend the right.—The Gazette, Reading, Berks County.

Although this last action of the Rump places the country in stormy times, we believe it will prove to be a blessing. The people are tired of strife; and new convulsions, hazarded from partisan motives, will add a resistless impetus to the reaction which set in last summer, and is destined to sweep the Republican party into defeat and disgrace.—The Democrat, Honesdale, Wayne County.

President Johnson is once more threatened with impeachment and removal from office, for the exercise of his constitutional functions, and for doing what all his predecessors, from Washington to Lincoln claimed the right to do without question from any one, or from any department of the government.—The Watchman, Bellefonte, Centre County.

No true patriot can fail to sympathize and sustain President Johnson in his course. The power of selecting his own Cabinet ministers, has been exercised by, and conceded to, every President from Washington down, and any law, or pretended law, which aims at the curtailment or destruction of this right is clearly unconstitutional and void.—The Gazette, York, York County.

The infamous conduct of this most infamous Rump will certainly end in a tragical way, unless Thaddeus Stevens and his co-conspirators hastily change their programme, and conform themselves to their oaths and the Constitution of their country.—The Republican, Clearfield, Clearfield County.

We feel satisfied that President Johnson will only act on the defensive, and should the Senate attempt to remove him, he has only to call on the people to sustain him, and then woe be to those perjured villains who have for the past few years been controlling the legislation of the country. They will find no convenient back windows by which to effect an escape from the punishment they so richly merit.—The Herald, Brookville, Jefferson County.

Should the conspirators against the public liberties manifest a disposition to complete the work they have begun, it will be the duty of the Democratic party to announce in language that cannot be misunderstood, its determination on the subject, and proceed to adopt means for making that determination good.—The Observer, Erie Erie County.

Excitement reigns over all the country, and the Jacobins may have the satisfaction of inaugurating an era of revolution worthy of their historical namesakes.—The Democrat, Laporte, Sullivan County.

Before another month rolls around, we will have passed through another crisis in our history which will tell either for the weal or woe of the whole people. We pray God, in His infinite goodness, that He so temper the hearts of all the people, as to prevent the horrors of what now seems to be an impending civil war!—The Gazette, Berwick, Columbia County.

For what crime is the President thus to be dealt with? Why, for doing precisely what every former President has done, and what the Constitution guarantees every President the right to do—the right to choose his own Cabinet. If this action of Congress is successful, and is to be established as a precedent, any future Congress may summarily put out any President by merely passing an unconstitutional act, and if such President refuses to recognize and obey it, or takes any steps to have it judicially tested, he will subject himself to impeachment at once.—The Local, Beaver, Beaver County.

If, instead of Congress going off into spasms, on the announcement by the President that he had removed Stanton, they had quietly awaited the result, and co-operated with the President in endeavoring to have a judicial settlement of the question at the earliest day, the whole matter might have been disposed of by this time, and the public mind set at rest. But this did not suit the Radical purposes.—The Intelligencer, Danville, Montour County.

The people are everywhere expressing their willingness to stand by the President with their fortunes and their lives, if needs be. Both houses of the Legislature of New Jersey have adopted a resolution to support the Executive. A paper is being publicly and numerously signed in New York, pledging support of arms, if required. In Philadelphia, numerous meetings were called, and tenders of aid made the President. From all sides comes similar offers.—The Democrat, McConnellsburg, Fulton County.

That the President has the Constitution of the country, and right on his side, we have no manner of doubt. His patience and forbearance in presenting his rights are most commendable, and just the contrary to the impatience and passion displayed by Congress. That he will be sustained by the people of the country, there is the strongest reason to believe, from the universal approval his acts have received, and the denunciations of the course of Congress, by Democrats and Conservatives everywhere.—The Standard, Pottsville, Schuylkill County.

The country is greatly agitated as a result of these revolutionary proceedings, and there is no telling what the matter may terminate in—perhaps revolution and bloodshed. Let every good man sustain the President because he is right, and condemn the Radical leaders because they are wrong—infamously wrong.—The Democrat, Mauch Chunk, Carbon County.

BULLY BOY.—Old man Grant, Ulysses' father is writing the early life of his son, which is now being published. He says that when Ulysses was a boy, if a circus or any show came along, in which there was a call for somebody to come forward and ride a pony, he was always the one to present himself, and whatever he undertook to ride he rode. This practice he kept up, until he got to be so large that he was ashamed to ride a pony." The first chapter only comes down to Ulysses' twelfth year. In the next we look for the old man to give us a graphic description of the first drink of "red eye" his precious boy ever took.

ARTICLES OF IMPEACHMENT.

The articles of impeachment against the President of the United States, were presented to the House on Saturday by Mr. Boutwell. As we have not space to print them in full this week, we give the following synopsis from the Baltimore Sun:

It will be seen that the committee do not take up any act of the President prior to the removal of Mr. Stanton. Most of the articles are based upon the alleged violation of the civil-tenure act, passed March 2, 1867, including those from 1 to 5, as well as 7 and 8. In addition to these, article 6 charges unlawful conspiracy with General Thomas to obtain possession of United States property in the War Department, in violation of the act of July 31, 1861, which provides "that if two or more persons within any State or Territory of the United States, shall conspire together by force to prevent, hinder or delay the execution of any law of the United States, or by force to seize, take or posess any property of the United States against the will or contrary to the authority of the United States or by force or intimidation or threat to prevent any person from accepting or holding any office or trust or place of confidence under the United States, each and every person so offending shall be guilty of a high crime." Article 9 charges an unlawful effort to control the disbursement of funds for the military service and for the War Department, contrary to the civel-tenure act. Article 10 charges that the President, as commander-in-chief of the army, declared to and instructed the commander of the department of Washington, General Emory, that the portion of the army appropriation bill of March 2, 1867, which "provides that all orders and instructions relating to military operations, issued by the President or Secretary of War, shall be issued through the general of the army," &c., was unconstitutional and in contravention of the commission of said Emory, the intent being thereby "to induce said Emory" to "violate the provisions of said law," and receive and act upon orders from Mr. Johnson which would not be issued through the general of the army, all of which is declared to render the President guilty of a high misdemeanor in office.

Accompanying the articles of impeachment is the testimony of General Emory, as well as of Luit. Col. Wallace, commanding the garrison of Washington, as in support of the allegations of the tenth article, which, it seems to us, it is impossible for any one to read without unspeakable astonishment at the audacity which seeks to found a guilty charge upon so flimsy a basis. The provision in question is one of those gross and incongruous provisions which are sometimes injected into appropriation bills for a purpose, and by which often not only the public officials themselves are entrapped; but in this case the evidence does not show that anything at all was done in violation of the act; on the contrary, it would appear that on a due understanding of the position the president no further referred to the subject.

IMPEACHMENT TRIALS.

Since the adoption of the Constitution there have been five trials of impeachment by the Senate. The first of these was that of William Blount, a Senator from Tennessee. It commenced December 17th, 1798, and was concluded January 14th, 1799. The next was the trial of John Pickering, Judge of the New Hampshire District, which lasted from March 3d to March 12th, 1803. The third was that of Sam'l Chase, one of the Associate Judges of the Supreme Court of the United States, which was commenced November 30th, 1804, and lasted until March 1st, 1805. The fourth was the trial of James H. Peck, Judge of the Missouri District, which was prolonged through two sessions, viz: from May 11th to May 25th, 1830, and from December 30th of the same year to January 31st, 1831. The last trial by the Senate was on the impeachment of Judge Humphreys, of the Tennessee District, about the year 1863, we think; but the record is not before us.

It may be interesting to give a brief sketch of the mode of proceeding in trials on impeachment. After the House has resolved to make charges, a committee is appointed to impeach the accused before the Senate. Then the Senate, by its Sergeant-at-arms, summons the accused to appear and answer. He is then furnished with a copy of the charge, and allowed time to answer them. The House of Representatives replies to the answer when it is put in, declares its readiness to prove its charges, and appoints managers to conduct the impeachment.—A time is then determined for the trial. The accused has the advantage of legal advisers, and witnesses in his behalf are compelled to attend. The forms of trial are the same as in other courts of justice. When the trial is concluded, the Senate considers the subject, and each Senator, having been previously sworn, as jurors are sworn, is called by name and says whether the accused in his opinion is guilty or not guilty. If two-thirds of the Senators declare him guilty, then judgement to the effect is pronounced. The sentence of the Senate on trial of impeachment is limited to removal from office, and future disqualification to hold any office under the United States.

A EUOLOGY OF WOMEN, BY "MARK TWAIN."

At the dinner recently given by the Correspondents' Club at Washington, "Mark Twain" was called on to respond to the usual toast to "Women" which he did in the following characteristic style:

"Mr. President: I do not know why I should have been singled out to receive the greatest distinction of the evening,—for so the office of replying to the toast to women has been regarded in every age. [Applause.] I do not know why I have received this distinction unless it be that I am a trifle less homely than the other members of the Club. But be this as it may, Mr. President, I am proud of the position, and you could not have chosen any one who would have accepted it more gladly, or labored with a heartier goodwill to do the subject justice, than I. Because, sir, I love the sex. [Laughter.] I love all the women, sir, irrespective of age or color. [Laughter.]

"Human intelligence cannot estimate what we owe to women, sir.—She sews on our buttons [laughter], she mends our clothes [laughter], she ropes us in at church fairs,—she confides in us; she tells us whatever she can find out about the little private affairs of our neighbors; she gives us good advice—and plenty of it; she gives us a piece of her mind sometimes—and sometimes all of it; she soothes our aching brows: she bears our children—ours as a general thing. In all the relations of life, sir, it is but just and a graceful tribute to women to say of her that she is a brick. [Great laughter.]

"Wheresoever you place woman, sir—in whatever position or estate—she is an ornament to that place she occupies, and a treasure to the world.—[Here Mr. Twain paused, looked inquiringly at his hearers, and remarked that the applause should come in at this point. It came in. Mr. Twain resumed his eulogy.] Look at the noble names of history! Look at Cleopatra! look at Desdemona! look at Florence Nightingale! look at Joan of Arc! look at Lucretia Borgia! [Disapprobation expressed.] "Well,' said Mr. Twain, scratching his head doubtfully, 'suppose we let Lucretia slide.' Look at Joyce Heth! look at Mother Eve [Cries of 'Oh!' 'Oh!'] You need not look at her unless you want to, but (said Mr. Twain reflectively, after a pause) Eve was ornamental, sir; particularly before the fashions changed! I repeat, sir, look at the illustrious names of history. Look at Widow Magree! look at Lucy Stone! look at Elizabeth Cady Stanton! look at George Francis Train! [Great laughter.] And sir, I say it with bowed head and deepest veneration, look at the mother of Washington! she raised a boy that could not lie—could not lie. [Applause.] But he never had any chance, ['Oh!' 'Oh!'] It might have been different with him had he belonged to a newspaper correspondents' club. [Laughter, groans, hisses, cries of 'put him out.' Mark looked around placidly upon his excited audience and resumed.]

"I repeat, sir, that in whatsoever position you place a woman she is an ornament to society and a treasure to the world. As a sweetheart she has few equals and no superiors [laughter]; as a cousin she is convenient—as a wealthy grand-mother she is precious—as a wet nurse she has no equal among men! [Laughter].

"What, sir, would the people of the earth be without women? They would be scarce, sir—almighty scarce! Then let us cherish her—let us protect her—let us give her our support, our encouragement, our sympathy—ourselves, if we get a chance.—[Laughter.]

"But jesting aside, Mr. President, woman is lovable, gracious, kind of heart, beautiful—worthy of all respect, of all esteem, of all deference. Not any here will refuse to drink her health right cordially in this bumper of wine, for each and every one of us has personally known, and loved, and honored, the very best of them all—his own mother!" [Applause.]

MISUNDERSTOOD THE TEXT.—A worthy deacon hired a journeyman farmer from a neighboring town for the Summer, and induced him, although he was unaccustomed to church-going—to accompany the family to church on the first Sabbath of his stay. Upon their return to the deacon's house he asked his hired man how he liked the preaching. He replied—

"I dont like to hear any minister preach politics."

"I am very sure you heard no politics to-day," said the deacon.

"I am sure that I did," said the man.

"Mention the passage," replied the deacon.

"I will." He said: "If the Democrats scarcely are saved, where will the Republicans appear?"

"Ah" said the deacon, "you mistake. These were the words—'If the righteous scarcely are saved, how will the wicked and ungodly appear?'"

"O, yes," said the man, "he might have used those words but I know dueced well what he meant.

Senator Wade, in his recent speech, declared that the gates of hell could not prevail against the Radical party. Probably not. Whenever these principles butt against those gates the gates will give way and into hell will go both principles and party.—Ex.

SHE WOULDN'T MARRY A MECHANIC.

A young man commenced visiting a young woman, and appeared to be well pleased. One evening he called when it was quite late, which led the young lady to enquire where he had been.

"I had to work to night."

"What! do you work for a living?" she enquired in astonishment.

"Certainly," replied the young man, "I am a mechanic."

"I dislike the name of a mechanic," and she turned up her pretty nose.

That was the last time the young man visited that young woman. He is now a wealthy man, and has one of the best women in the country for his wife.

The lady who disliked the name of a mechanic is now the wife of a miserable fool—a regular vagrant about grog shops—and the soft, verdant, silly miserable girl is obliged to take in washing in order to support herself and children.

You dislike the name of a mechanic, oh? You whose brothers are but well dressed loafers. We pity any girl who has so little brains, who is so verdant, so soft, as to think less of a young man for being a mechanic—one of God's noblemen—the most dignified and honorable personage of heaven's creatures.

Beware, young ladies, how you treat young men who work for a living, for you may one day be menial to one of them yourself.

Far better to discharge the well-fed pauper with all his rings, jewelry, brazeness and pomposity, and take to your affections the callous handed, intelligent and industrious mechanic.

Thousands have bitterly regretted their folly who have turned their backs to honesty. A few years have taught them a severe lesson.

A GOOD TEST.—In consideration of the fact that frequent explosions in coal oil, kerosene, etc., are of almost daily occurrence, endangering life and property, the following simple method of testing the pure (non-explosive) from the impure or mixed (explosive) article, may be of benefit to people who are obliged to use coal oil instead of gas. A gentleman connected with one of the principal railways centering at Harrisburg informs us the oil used for the "head-light" or reflector of an engine, is a mixture of pure, refined coil oil and lard. In order to prevent explosions, it is highly necessary to use the pure article of coil oil. To ascertain whether the latter is pure, a quantity is poured out upon a board or flat piece of stone or iron, and a piece of burning paper applied to it. If the oil takes fire, and burns, creating a flame, it is pronounced an adulteration and unfit for use. On the other hand, pure oil will not burn in the open air, when thus tested, and its safety may be relied upon. In this manner large quantities for railway purposes are tested. The hint is worthy the attention of consumers of coal oil. All the kerosene, or so called "refined" coal oil that will not stand the above test, ought to be promptly excluded from every household.

THREE QUESTIONS FOR EVERY MAN TO ANSWER HONESTLY.—If the Southern States by act of Secession or result of War are not out of the Union, how can Congress declare an amendment to the Federal Constitution ratified which has not received the sanction of three-fourths of thirty-seven States; as by the Constitution?

Again—

If the Southern States are not out of the Union, by what right is it attempted to make of them a Southern Despotism given over to one to rule, as is proposed?

Again—

If they are out of the Union (and on no other base can a despotism be there established,) how came they out, when went they out, and in what way was the war a success?—Biddeford (Me.) Democrat.

The following item from the Lewistown Gazette will be of interest to our farmer readers:—

ROCK WHEAT.—Some years ago a fine stalk of wheat was found growing among the rocks on Shade Mountain, which when ripe was plucked by Mr. Miller and handed to Joseph Krick of Decatur township, who has been raising it since, and last fall sowed about four bushels, so that, should it continue to yield as it has done, next year will enable a number of farmers to undertake its cultivation. It is a white wheat, with strong straw, remarkably compact heads, grains thin-shelled, and produced at the rate of 48 bushels to the acre, while other wheat in similar ground on the same farm averaged under 16 bushels.

WHERE'S THAT MAN?—A few days ago the agent of an accidental insurance company entered a railroad car, and approaching an exceedingly gruff old man, asked him if he did not want to "take out a policy." He was told "to get out with his policy," and passed on. After riding about an hour, an accident occurred on the train, and the car ran over the sleepers, causing much consternation among the passengers. The old man jumped up, and seizing a hook at the side of the car to steady himself, called out "where's that insurance man?" The question caused a roar of laughter among the passengers, who for the time forgot their danger.

DEMOCRATIC STATE NOMINATIONS.

FOR AUDITOR GENERAL,

HON. CHARLES E. BOYLE,

of Fayette County.

FOR SURVEYOR GENERAL.

GEN. WELLINGTON H. ENT,

of Columbia County.

WE repeat—Andrew Johnson must fight, rather than surrender his Constitutional rights at the bidding of the packed jury now trying him for pretended offences. Mr. President, put in your plea denying the competency of the Rump Senate to try you, issue your proclamation calling upon the people to sustain you, and all will be right. Yield this point, and you are lost—not only you, but the Republic.

A LEAFLET FROM THE SECRET HISTORY OF BEDFORD COUNTY POLITICS.

It was a fine September morning, in the year, 1862, that a certain politician of the town of Bedford, the first letters of whose name are W. M. Hall, might have been seen to cross Julianna street, a few steps north of the Mengel House, in said town, and to place his hand upon the shoulder of a well-known "Copperhead," whilst he said: "You are right! Henceforth I am with you. Lincoln's Emancipation Proclamation has changed the purpose of the war, and I will have nothing more to do with it!" A few hours later, this same Mr. Hall sat in his office, busily engaged in drawing up a written request to a certain John Cessna, who was then the Democratic candidate for member of the Legislature, demanding that the said John Cessna should either publicly announce himself as opposed to the Emancipation Proclamation, or withdraw his name from the Democratic ticket, at the same time threatening that another Democratic candidate would be put forward, in the event that Cessna failed to do as he was bidden. This written request was signed by the said Hall and a number of other persons. Cessna assured the signers privately that he was opposed to the Emancipation Proclamation, and this assurance squelched Mr. Hall. At a Democratic Meeting in the Court House, some time afterward, this same man Hall came forward and publicly acknowledged that he was wrong in advocating the prosecution of the war and hoped that he would be forgiven for making so sad a mistake. During the following Spring, a meeting was held at Fetter's School House, in Bedford tp., at which Hall made a speech, in which speech he declared that "rather than give another man or another dollar for the prosecution of the war, he would have Pennsylvania secede from the Union and cast in her fortunes with the South!" Just about this time Mr. Hall was a candidate for the Democratic nomination for member of the Legislature, which nomination he failed to receive. The upshot of all this was that at the next election, he voted the Republican ticket and deliberately swallowed all his anti-Emancipation speeches including the awful dose he gave the people of Bedford township, at Fetter's School House, a few months previous. And this is the fellow who calls Democrats "blind-bridled jack-asses!" This is the creature that denounces men because they cling to their traditional love of the Constitution! This is the "Daniel come to judgment," who fain would be the conscience-keeper of the people of Bedford county! A proper fellow, indeed, to teach the public how to vote!

THE Chambersburg Repository of last week, has the following:

HISTORY is repeating itself. Another Lyon is in the path of peace, and by his side, on paper, are "forty-five" valiant warriors ready to do battle for Andrew Johnson. Bedford boasts of this invincible Captain, and his prowess has been flashed by lightning to the uttermost ends of the Union.—Where this grand army has its tents of war and its sulphurous camp-fires, the trembling world has not been advised, but the retreats of the draft skedaddlers in the mountain fastnesses of the Alleghenies are doubtless where they are drilling for the shock of war. They are valiant—they have their monuments of valor, in the charred ruins of the buildings of enrolling officers, and they now pant to drink the blood of the Senate and Congress.—Why does not the unappreciative Johnson send the heroic Lyon the long and begging brevets of Lieutenant General and General, and bid him come? For the forgetfulness of A. J. we beg the roaring Lyon to marshal his forces, fill their canteens and—forward march!

A pretty friend of the soldier, is this same scribbler for the Repository! The G. A. R. (which letters, we presume stand for Greedy Army Rats) may pile up their kegs of villainous saltpetre, and stack in their lodges the arms they have surreptitiously obtained from the Government, with the treasonable design of forcing the Constitutional Executive out of the Presidential chair; but when brave and tried soldiers of the Union propose to defend the President against the attacks of such usurpers, the Repository sneers and snarls at them as though they were monstrous criminals. The editor of that sheet forgets that Capt. Lyons and his gallant boys of the twenty second cavalry, stood many a day and many a night between the enemy's torch and the beautiful "Norland." Shame on such ingratitude! But nothing better can be expected from the valiant fellow who once upon a time "skedaddled," not to the "mountain fastnesses of the Alleghenies," but to the classic fence-corners of historical "Rutherford's Lane."

PANIC FEAR AMONG THE RADICALS.

It appears from our Washington news that some malicious or waggish individual has been persuading the radical that nitro-glycerine (a new explosive agent of terrific destructiveness) had been sent from New York, and placed in the basement of the Capitol at Washington to blow up both houses of Congress. While Speaker Colfax, pale with fear, was reading the ominous message from New York, the conscience-stricken radical members gathered in knots to take counsel in the moment of sudden danger, and many of them left the hall in trepidation, before the trembling Spaulding could put a motion to adjourn. In their fright they noticed that the Democratic members were absent in unusual numbers, driven from the hall by fanatic speeches, and not the fear of nitro-glycerine. The few who remained did explode—with laughter at the expense of the poor radicals whom conscious guilt had made the victims of credulous terror. Having deliberately violated the laws and constitution of the country, having established despotism in ten States of the Union, having just attempted to destroy a co-equal branch of the government, it is no wonder that they should tremble, Belshazzar-like, at every phantom.

But it turns out that a suspicious looking package taken to the Capitol the other day, was not nitro-glycerine at all, but merely some articles of luxury for chevalier Forney, Secretary of the Senate, a list of which may be found in a forth coming volume of miscellaneous expenditures. There were French soaps and Night Blooming Cereus for the dainty Wilson; Gents' Kid Gloves (Forney's own selection) for the exquisite Conkling; foreign reviews and magazines for Sumner; "Old Overholts" and Bourbon for Yates and Chandler. Not nitro-glycerine, but wines, perfumes, bergamot, ottar of roses, the last sensation gold pens, Wilkes' Spirit of the Times, cork-screws, pen knives, pomade and pocket books.

The radical congressmen need not anticipate their fate and the just anger of the people in unmanly dread of being hoisted from their seats by nitrous explosives. Cumberers as they are, politically, no man is criminal enough or fool enough to crave the mean immortality that such a deed would confer. At the next election they will be blown into political annihilation by the wrathful breath of a deeply injured people, more terrible than nitro-glycerine or any other agent of destruction yet invented. Then will they see a Guy Fawkes in every honest plowman, an Orsini in every hard handed mechanic, a Brutus in every intelligent citizen, armed not with the stiletto of the assassin, nor infernal engines of destruction, but with a pellet

"Which executes a freeman's will,
As lightnings do the will of God."

A BRACE OF BEAUTIES.

The Radical Rebels had a meeting in the Court House on Wednesday night of last week, which was addressed by W. M. Hall and John Cessna. We are informed that Hall said that the Democrats are "jack-asses with blind bridles on, and push straight ahead without looking to the right or to the left." How long is it since Hall and Cessna belonged to this same class of "blind-bridled jack-asses?" Like the ostrich, they imagine that when they stick their heads in the sand, they can't be seen, because they can't see. The truth is that when they were with and of the party which they now vilify and denounce, they were so greedy that they gnawed through the bits of their "blind-bridles," and becoming unbridled in their ambition, they "looked to the right and to the left" and finally went to grass in the Abolition pasture-field. This brace of beauties can't understand how it is that men can go straight ahead, in the path of principle, without "looking to the right or to the left." But it is the pride and the glory of true Democrats, that they go straight forward and avoid the devious windings and crooked ways of those who turn aside for the flesh-pots of Egypt. We are not at all astonished that straight-forwardness and devotion to principle, are not appreciated by such chaps as Wm. M. Hall and John Cessna.

LIMPY LUTZ.

The dapper little chap who now struts about as straight as if he had a ramrod for a back bone, but who, during the war, when a draft was to be made, used to limp and hobble around like a spavined jack-ass for fear he would have "to go for a soldier," or, what would have hurt his feelings just as much, to pay for a substitute, says in the last Inquirer, that "we (that is the Radicals) have negroes enough in Bedford county who have seen service and been honorably discharged who can whip a division of such fellows," meaning the white soldiers who are ready to sustain the President! Of course a white-livered coward like you would fall back on the poor negroes, who are to be your tools! Oh! yes! If any fighting is to be done for the Radical rebels, you'll get the "limps" again, and most certainly the negroes will have to do your share of it, for no white man would so degrade himself as to become a substitute for a fellow like you.

PARAGONS OF CHRISTIAN GENTLENESS.

The editors of the Bedford Inquirer profess to be christian gentlemen. They are, truly, paragons of christian gentleness. Their several articles, last week, contain these words as applied to their neighbors in Bedford: "Miserable Cowards," "Worthless Hides," "Meanness and Selfishness"—"unscrupulous Knaves"—"Stringfellows of Border Ruffian fame"—"No Souls"—"No Character"—"Pecksniff"—"Would strip the dead"—"Rob the orphan of his crust of bread"—"Would betray his God"—"Doomed spirits"—"Blackguard"—"Fools"—"Cops"—"Party hacks"—"Asses"—"Pusillanimous Reptiles"—"Slunk away"—"Burned Barns"—"Bah!"—"Infamous lie"—"Miserable, contemptible Cowards"—"Small Fry"—"Drunken maudlin"—"Lecherous Manikin," &c., &c. If this sort of warfare is to continue, we shall be obliged to go to the "Inquirer Book Store" and purchase a copy of the Fishwoman's Dictionary which is evidently among the "excellent books" for sale at that repository of elegant literature. There is another Book, however, that might be of some service to the Pharisees who talk about other people's "piety," if they would only read it.

THE Bedford Inquirer has the effrontery to say that President Johnson (whom it styles "drunken maudlin," boori-h tailor," "lecherous manikin," &c.,&c.) has "attempted to force out one and force in another cabinet officer without the advice and consent of the Senate." It is hardly worth while to cast the pearls of truth before such swine as the author of the Inquirer's article, but for the benefit of the decent men who read that sheet, we ask the Inquirer to say in its next issue, whether all Presidents who preceded Mr. Johnson, did not remove Cabinet officers when they chose so to do? Did not Andrew Jackson remove some of his Cabinet officers and was he not sustained by the people in so doing? Now, answer these questions and let us have no dodging!—The Constitution provides that the President shall, "with the advice and consent of the Senate," appoint certain officers, among which members of the cabinet are included; but it does not say that he shall ask the consent of the Senate when he decides to remove such officers. The Act of congress of 1789, which is unrepealed to this day, settles this matter in the most explicit manner. Now, President Johnson sent his appointment of Mr. Ewing as Secretary of War to the Senate for confirmation, as all other appointments have always been sent, and that body can reject Mr. Ewing whenever it pleases. Therefore, he has not attempted to force any body into his cabinet "without the advice and consent of the Senate." The Inquirer simply and flatly lies. As to the appointment of Gen. Thomas, every body but the ignoramuses of the Inquirer, knows that he was only to act as Secretary of War ad interim, (he being the Adjutant General of the Army) that is, until the President and the Senate could agree upon the appointment of a permanent Secretary.

DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION.

This body met at Harrisburg, on the 4th inst., and did its work in an eminently harmonious and proper manner. The nominees for State offices, are both first rate men. Hon. C. E. Boyle, of Fayette, the candidate for Auditor General, was the Democratic leader of the House, last year, and is universally acknowledged to be a strictly honest, as well as very able man. Gen. W. H. Ent, of Columbia, the Candidate for Surveyor General, is a soldier whose record is spotless. His name is a household word with the hard-fighting Pennsylvania Reserves, whom he led in many a bloody field. For the proceedings of the Convention, see another column. The platform is a wise and sound one, and should be pondered by every thinking man in the county.

NAPIER.

The Democrats of Napier tp., have nominated an excellent ticket for twp. officers, and every Democrat in the township should make it a point to go to the election on Friday, 20th inst., and vote the whole ticket. The Radical tricksters are busy in trying to sow the seeds of dissension in this gallant old township. Their latest dodge is to set the Democrats by the ears on a local question in regard to the schools of the township. John Cessna boasted the other day that "Napier would be put through." Democrats of glorious old Napier! Be on the alert and show the tricksters who are trying to destroy you, that they "are reckoning without their host." Turn out to the election and give the Radicals such a defeat as will teach them hereafter to mind their own business and to let yours alone.

THE PHARISEES!

There is no reason why a man should make a black-guard of himself, because he desires the success of his party!—First editorial column of last week's Inquirer.

"Pusillanimous reptiles," "miserable contemptible cowards," "cowardly tricksters," "skedaddlers," "Copper-Johnson," "copperhead," "barn-burnings," "cops," "Bah!" "Drunken Maudlin," "boorish tailor of Tennessee," "lecherous manikin," etc.—Second and third columns of last week's Inquirer.

Judging from these "specimen bricks," there must be some reason "why a man should make a blackguard of himself" who "desires the success of" the Radical party!

THERE are some men who have hitherto acted with the Radical party, whom conscience tells that Radicalism is wrong and that they ought to discard it. In fact, they say as much to Democrats. But they hunt around for something to smother the outcries of conscience, and they are willing to accept any thing, in this line, no matter how ridiculous, that is offered them by Radical politicians. They know that their party is perpetrating outrages unheard of in all the history of politics, but when John Cessna tells a story about "butting a bull off a bridge," or some other leader of their party, yells "Copperhead" at them, or when they read the flimsy lies of the Bedford Inquirer, they think, "Oh! well, if a poor excuse answers for others it will answer for us!" not remembering that they will some day themselves be called upon to give an account of every unjust act they perform and to suffer for every instance in which they set conscience at naught.

"The Dutch have taken Holland again." The Radicals have carried New Hampshire by about their usual majority—perhaps a little less than last year. New Hampshire is joined to her idols.

CONGRESSIONAL.

WASHINGTON, March 5.

SENATE.—After disposing of some unimportant business the resolution in relation to the issue of tickets for the galleries during impeachment was taken up, but the expiration of the morning hour cut short the debate, and Legislative and Executive business was ordered to cease for the purpose of attending to the business of impeachment.

High Court of Impeachment.

At the expiration of the morning hour the Chief Justice and attendants entered the Senate. The President pro tem. vacated his chair, and the Chief Justice advanced up the aisle, clad in his official robe, assisted by Mr. Pomeroy, Chairman of the Committee, with Judge Nelson, of the Supreme Court, on his right. The Chief Justice having ascended to the President's chair, said, "Senators, in obedience to notice, I have appeared to join with you in forming a court of impeachment for the trial of the President of the United States, and I am now ready to take the oath." The following oath was then administered to the Chief Justice by Judge Nelson: "I do solemnly swear that in all things appertaining to the trial of the impeachment of Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, I will do impartial justice, according to the Constitution and laws, so help me God." The Chief Justice then said: "Senators, the oath will now be administered to the Senators as they will be called by the Secretary in succession." The Secretary called the roll, each Senator advancing in turn and taking the oath prescribed in the rules. When the name of Senator Wade was called, the question was put whether he, being the person who would succeed to the Presidential office, was entitled to sit as a judge. The question was argued at considerable length by Messrs. Hendricks, Sherman, Johnson and others. The Court, at half-past four, adjourned, without deciding the question.

HOUSE.—In the House Mr. Eliot introduced a bill providing that in case the office of Chief Justice of the Supreme Court becomes vacant from any cause, the same shall devolve on the Associate Justice of such Court whose commision is senior in time, until another appointment shall be duly made. After disposing of some unimportant business the consideration of the case of Mr. Butler, member elect from Tennessee, was resumed. After considerable discussion the matter was recommitted to the Committee on Elections. A bill was passed appointing managers of the National Asylum for disabled soldiers, and authorizing the Secretary of War to furnish ordnance for firing salutes, and equipments for guard duty to the asylums. The House then adjourned.

—The cotton spinners and weavers employed in the mills at Fall River, Mass., on the 2d inst., struck for higher wages. The mill owners refused to accede to their demands, and stopped their mills. As a consequence, over five thousand persons are out of employment.

DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION.

HARRISBURG, March 4.

The Convention met at noon in the hall of the House of Representatives, the Legislature having adjourned over. The delegates were seated in front of the Speaker's chair, arranged in accordance with their Congressional apportionment. In the rear of the delegates was a dense mass of outsiders, comprising Democrats from every part of the State, and the crowd extended through the rotunda and out to the steps of the Capitol, while every window and doorway was crowded with interested spectators. At twelve o'clock, amid profound quiet, Colonel Wallace called the Convention to order.

The list of delegates was called by Secretary Brown, of Harrisburg. A full roll answered.

At the opening of the proceedings Hon. W. A. Wallace, Chairman of State Central Committee, addressed the convention in an able and eloquent speech, which was received with rounds of applause.

At the conclusion of Colonel Wallace's stirring address, Hon. S. E. Ancona nominated Hon. Wm. M. Randall, of Schuylkill county, as temporary chairman. The nomination was unanimously approved.

On taking the chair, Mr Randall addressed the convention at some length, setting forth the duties of the Democracy in this national emergency and counselling, in the strongest terms, the selection of the very best men—men whose public and private reputations are spotless, and beyond the reach of fault finding. Mr. Randall's remarks were received with immense enthusiasm, and that they were forcible and convincing is shown by the fact that his suggestions were adopted to the letter, and men selected as standard bearers, who can go before the people of the State, claiming their entire confidence.

At the afternoon session the committee on permanent organization reported the following as officers of the convention:

President—Col. William Hopkins.

Vice Presidents—James Brooks, George A. Quigley, Joseph Caldwell, Dr. J. L. Forewood, Daniel K. Weidner, C. F. Eldred, R. R. Bridgens, Wm. F. Forsyth, Andrew M. Frantz, David Wherry, J. B. Hackel, George Jackson, Wm. L. Corbet, Benj. P. Kane, D. M. Donehoo, James Sheakley, Thomas A. M'Devitt, Bryce M. Purcell, Dr. C. F. Shultz, Isaac Bechtel, Andrew Geiselman, Henry C. Eyer, Col. John M'Creary, G. W. Wormley, Hon. Hiram Findlay, Jacob Quilman, Joseph M. Thompson, B. M'Cauley, John Mackin, Samuel Marshall.

Secretaries—Frank M. Hutchison, John Huplett, Jacob Ziegler, A. J. Crisman, Wm. Breslin, W. S. Stenger, W. J. Jackman, Wm. Mutchler.

Sergeant-at-Arms—Sam. Carson.

Door Keeper—Folyard E. Degan.

Ass't Door Keepers—Michael Sullivan, Wm. Gillingham, Michael Develin, Matthew Thompson, John Gallagher, Frank McCord, Thomas A. Pender.

Mr. Hopkins, upon taking the chair, was loudly applauded.

Mr. Deise, of Clinton, and General McCandless, of Philadelphia, by special request, addressed the convention, and were followed by Hon. W. Hopkins, the present chairman, in a neat, short speech.

Mr. Cassidy, from the Committee on Resolutions, presented the following, which were adopted amid the most vociferous applause:

RESOLUTIONS.

Resolved, That the happiness of the people and the preservation of our power as a Republic depend upon the perpetuity of the Union and the preservation of the Constitution, and the prompt restoration of each and all of the States to the enjoyment of their rights and functions in the Union, is essential to our progress, our prosperity, and the protection of our liberties, and Radical legislation is the only barrier thereto.

Resolved, That the Constitution of the United States is the supreme law; it is binding upon the people and upon every department of the Government, and it is the highest duty of those in and out of official place to yield implicit obedience to all its provisions, until it is changed in the manner provided therein. That the recent attempts of the Legislative branch of the Government to usurp the office of the Executive, and to destroy the independence of the Judiciary, are deliberate attacks upon the plainest provisions of the Constitution, in utter violation of its spirit, and tend to the overthrow of the Government itself.

Resolved, That the Radicals in Congress have wrung from the people enormous sums of money, which they have squandered in reckless extravagance; that their system of revenue is ill devised, incongruous, and inequitable; that rigid economy in every branch of the public service, a decrease in the number of officials, a reduction in the army and navy, and reform in the collection of the revenue are imperatively demanded. Only by this means can a reduction in the amount of taxation now imposed on the industrial and manufacturing interests be attained, and the payment of our indebtedness be assured.

Resolved, That the Republican party is responsible to the country for the delay in the restoration of the Southern States to their just relations in the Union, and for the government of their people by military rule; that the purpose of these measures is to perpetuate Radical power through the votes of illiterate negroes.

Resolved, That in enacting the Tenure of Office law the Legislative and Executive branches of the Government, each for itself, had a right to judge of its constitutionality, and that in thus exercising the right the Executive was duly complying with that portion of his oath of office which required him to preserve, protect, and defend the Constitution of the United States; and that it is the right of every branch of the Government, and of every citizen, to have questions involving the constitutionality of any law speedily adjudged by the Supreme Court of the United States, and the right of the people to have said decisions enforced.

Resolved, That the pending impeachment of the President of the United States is a gross and reckless abuse of partizan power, without justifiable cause, and is intended for the attainment of party purposes at the sacrifice of the most vital interests of the country.

Resolved, That a return to a specie-paying basis at the earliest practicable moment is essential to the interests of the people and prosperity of the nation.

Resolved, That the national debt should be paid as rapidly as is consistent with the terms of the laws upon which the several loans are based.

Resolved, That the five-twenty bonds and the legal tender notes are component parts of the same financial system, and until the Government is able to redeem the legal tenders in coin, the holders of these bonds should be required to receive legal tenders in payment.

Resolved, That every species of property should bear its proportion of taxation and that the exemption of Government bonds therefrom is unjust and inequitable.

Resolved, That we recognize with emotions of deepest gratitude the efforts of the gallant volunteer soldiers who so freely took up arms to protect the flag and preserve the Union, and we denounce as unjust to them, the efforts of the Radicals to prevent a restoration of the Union until negro supremacy is established in certain States, and negro equality made the rule in all.

Resolved, That the naturalization of foreign born citizens places them on the same footing as those born in this country, and it is the duty of the Government to see that all the citizens, naturalized and native, are protected in the rights of life, liberty, and property, abroad as well as at home, and that in the view of the Democracy the flag of the country ought and must be made to protect all our citizens.

The convention then proceeded to ballot for a candidate for Auditor General. On the third ballot Hon. Charles E. Boyle, of Fayette, receiving a majority of votes, was declared the successful candidate, his nomination being subsequently made unanimous.

The convention then proceeded to ballot for a candidate for Surveyor General, the choice in the second ballot falling upon that gallant solder, General Wellington H. Ent, of Columbia county. His nomination was also made unanimous.

Last in order came the election of delegates at large, resulting in the choice of

Hon. George W. Woodward,
Hon. Asa Packer,
Hon. Wm. Bigler,
Hon. W. E. Hiester,

whose election was also made unanimous.

Hon. W. A. Wallace was by acclamation re-elected Chairman of the State Central Committee; a well-merited compliment to that indefatigable and consistent Democrat.

On motion of Mr. Cassidy, the following gentlemen were selected as the State Executive Committee:

1st District, Jno. P. Ahern; 2, T. S. Leisenring; 3, Michael Mullen; 4, H. F. Sellers; 5, Nimrod Strickland, Jr., Jno. C. Smith; 6, Herman Yerkes; 7, Nelson Weiser; 8, J. D. Davis; 10, Jno. B. Sterne; 11, Harvey Sickler; 12, E. W. Sturtevant; 13, J. W. Bailey; 15, Thomas Chalfant; 16, Dr. Lewis Heck; 17, Robert Crane, W. P. Brington; 18, J. W. Littinger; 19, H. J. Stable; 20, John H. Uhl; 21, David Caldwell, A. G. Bonsall; 22, H. D. Woodruff; 23, Thomas M'Cullough; 24, J. A. J. Buchanan; 25, J. B. Sweitzer, W. D. Moore; 26, D. M. Donehoe; 27, James Mosgrove; 29, Benj. Whitman.

Mr. Cassidy moved that the Chairman of the Executive Committee be empowered to appoint one person in each District as an especial deputy, in addition to those otherwise selected. Agreed to.

The following are the Electors and District Delegates:

ELECTORS.

At large—Geo. W. Cass and W. V. McGrath.

1st district, C. E. Kamerly; 2d, Charles M. Leisinring; 3d, Charles Buckwalter; 4th, George R. Berrel; 4th, H. R. Coggshall; 6th, Reuben Stahle; 7th, R. E. Monaghan; 8th, David L. Wenrick; 9th, B. G M'Gann, 10th, Wm. Shirk; 10th A. G. Broadhead, jr.; 12th, Jno. Blanding; 13th, J. Ammerman; 14th, W. P. Withington; 15th, W. R. Gorgas; 16th, Wm. P. Schell; 17th, Cyrus L. Pershing; 18th, A. C. Noyes; 19th, W. A. Galbraith; 20th, John R. Packard; 21st, James C. Clark; 22d, James H. Hopkins; 23d, Edward S. Golden; 24th, Samuel B. Wilson.

DELEGATES.

The delegates chosen were:

1st District, William M'Mullen, L. C. Cassidy; 2d, W. M. Reilly, W. C. Patterson; 3d, John E. Faunce, H. J. Linderman; 4th, Jeremiah M'Kibben; 5th, Charles M. Hurley, H. P. Ross; 6th, B. M. Boyer, John D. Stiles; 7th, John H. Brinton. Jackson Lyons; 8th Hiester Clymer, Jeremiah Hegeman; 9th, William Patton, A. J. Steinman; 10th, F. W. Hughs, D. S. Hammond; 11th, D. W. Hamlin, Henry S Mott; 12th, Michael Meylert, David Lowenberg; 14th, David M. Crawford, Wm. H. Miller; 15th, John A. Magee, John Gibson; 16th, George W. Brewer, John R. Donehooe; 17th, James Burns, Owen Clark; 18th George A. Auchinbaugh, William Brindle; 19th, Byron D. Hamlin, W. L. Scott; 20th, William L. Corbett, Gaylord Church; 21st, John L. Dawson, James B. Sansom; 22d, John A. Strain, J. B. Guthrie; 23d, R. H. Kerr, John T. Barr; 24th, A. A. Purman, D. S. Morris.

All the business was now concluded. To the House of Representatives, for the use of the hall; to the Chairman, for his urbane presiding; to the Secretaries for their laborious duties, thanks were unanimously tendered, and thus ended the convention. The speaker's gavel fell, the members shook hands all around, and congratulations on the unusual and uninterrupted harmony of the prolonged proceedings were generally exchanged.

DEMOREST'S MODEL MONTHLY.—Ladies never weary of praising this Magazine for its beauty and usefulness. Its patterns are worth more than the price of each number, and, with the admirable models furnished by its illustrations, are invaluable to ladies living in the country. We do not know much about the "Household" and other exclusively feminine departments, except that housekeepers think everything of them, but we do know that the reading matter is varied and unexceptionable, and that, altogether, it is as welcome a visitant as can be found in the parlor or family circle.—Price, $3.00 per year, with a handsome premium. DEMOCRATS, ATTENTION!

The Democrats of Bedford borough, will meet at the Court House, on Monday evening next, for the purpose of nominating a borough ticket. Turn out! VIGILANCE COMMITTEE.

OUR YOUNG FRIEND, J. Harry Hutton, has again returned to his old quarters with Messrs. A. A. Shumway & Co., 221 Market Street, half way between No. 2 and No. 3, North Side. This is one of the oldest established boot and shoe houses in the city. It was our pleasure, a few days ago, to be shown through the house, and we saw immense piles of boots and shoes, of every conceivable quality and at exceedingly low prices. The firm with whom Harry is employed are courteous and obliging gentelmen, who fully understand their business and appreciate the wants of our merchants. We would earnestly recommend those of our country merchants that have not yet called on the young man, to give him a call. To those who have favored him with their patronage he extends thanks. Don't miss the place,—221 Market Street, North Side.

"SPECTATOR" writes us a glowing account of the exhibition recently given in Bloody Run, by the ladies and gentlemen connected with the Lutheran Sabbath School Library Association, of this place. We cannot find room for so lengthy a communication at present, but will say that "Spectator" considers that the exhibition was a grand success, and that the ladies of Bloody Run deserve great credit for "baking so many delicious cakes for the encouragement of the good cause." One hundred and three dollars were realized by the exhibition.

PANORAMA.—Hershberger's Panorama of the invasion of Pennsylvania, and the burning of Chambersburg, was exhibited in the Court House, on last Tuesday night, before a very large crowd of people. The Major has succeeded in giving a true picture of the invasion, the burning of Chambersburg, &c., and the painting is well executed.

PATTONSVILLE, March 6.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—The last session of the South Woodbury District Institute was held at New Enterprise, on Saturday the 29th day of February, 1868. The house was called to order by the President at the usual hour (9 A. M.) In the absence of the Secretary and Assistant Secretary, W. B. Miller was appointed Secretary pro tem. All the members were present except Messrs. D. Stayer, B. F. Woodcock, M. M. Richey, D. B. Zook and D. Price. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. Next in order was the regular programme of business, which was as follows:

Class drill in Grammar by W. B. Miller, in Mental Arithmetic, by D. Stayer, in Geography, by G. W. Dively, in Reading, by J. M. Detrick.—On Motion, the Institute adjourned to meet at 1 o'clock, P. M.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The institute met at the time appointed. House called to order by President. Roll was called, and all members present except Messrs. M. M. Richey and D. B. Zook. The exercises were commenced by Mr. D. Stayer leading in vocal music, after which followed the regular programme of business. Class Drill in Written Arithmetic by A. S. Stayer, in orthography by F. B. Berkhimer. The following question was then debated:

Resolved, That the School term should be extended to Six months in Bedford County, on the Affirmative by D. Stayer, W. B. Miller, F. B. Berkhimer, S. B. Benner, and A. S. Stayer, and on the Negative, by B. F. Woodcock, G. W. Dively, G. C. Long, D. Price and J. M. Detrick.

The following resolutions were then offered and adopted:

1. Resolved, That the school term should be extended to six months in South Woodbury tp.

2. Resolved, That we, the teachers of S. Woodbury, tender a vote of thanks to the Directors of said tp., for giving us permission to hold a District Institute.

3. Resolved, That we, the members of this institute, tender our sincerest thanks to the County Institute for encouraging district institutes.

4. Resolved, That we tender a vote of thanks to all persons disinterested in the cause of education for their absence during the sessions of this institute.

5. Resolved, That we tender a vote of thanks to the Directors for their punctuality in visiting the Schools and Institute.

6. Resolved, That we, the teachers of South Woodbury, will not teach another term for less than $45,00 per month.

The Institute then adjourned to meet next fall. A. S. STAYER, Pres't.
DAVID PRICE, Sec'y.

IMPEACHMENT.

What the People Do and What the Rumpers Say and Do.

Tremendous Democratic Gains in New Hampshire, New York, and Maine!

Radicalism Rooted.

Democracy Dominant.

In all parts of New York State the Democrats have gained heavily at the late elections. In the City of Troy, the Democrats elect their candidate for Mayor by 1,450 majority, a gain of over 1,200 since last year. The same party carry the Common Council, and gain three Supervisors. In Utica, the Democrats elect their Mayor by four hundred majority, a gain of nearly one hundred per cent., and carry the Board of Aldermen. In Rochester, the Democrats elect their Mayor by 888 majority, against a majority of 492 last year. In Elmira, the Radicals elected their candidate for Mayor last year by eighty majority. On the 3d instant the Democrats elected their candidate by over two hundred majority. In the towns of Millerton, Palmyrai, Fulton, Lansingburg, Corning, Rhinebeck, Batavia, and Yonkers—representing all parts of the State—the friends of the Constitution and of a government of white men, for the benefit of white men and their posterity, have "cleaned out" the Radicals, and placed honest, patriotic men in their positions. The same results are observable in the town elections in Maine and New Hampshire. Portland, in the former State, led off with a largely increased majority for the Democratic ticket, and that good example has been followed in other towns until the whole East is roseate with the beams of the rising sun of constitutional liberty.

NOTICE TO DELINQUENTS.—We have placed our books and accounts in the hands of John P. Reed, Esq., of this place, for collection. All accounts for subscription for the year ending August 1, 1868, remaining unpaid, are included in the bills which Mr. Reed is authorized to collect. We have been compelled to resort to this course in order to obtain a settlement of our accounts. We have too much to do to attend to making out bills, and we are tired of dunning. Money we must have, as we have many debts to pay, and we desire to act honestly with our creditors. Therefore, we ask all to pay Mr. Reed, who can, and those who cannot, we ask to call and settle. If there is any thing in their accounts by which they consider themselves aggrieved, let them call on us, and we will make all right that is not right. Friends, let us have the old scores wiped out, and begin anew.

CHILDREN'S LIVES SAVED FOR 50 CENTS.—Thousands of Children die annually of Croup. Now, Mothers, if you spend 50 cents, and always have a bottle of Dr. Tobias' Venetian Liniment in the house, you never need fear losing your little one when attacked with this complaint. It is now 20 years since I have put up my Liniment, and never heard of a child dying of Croup when my Liniment was used; but hundreds of cases of cures have been reported to me, and many state if it was $10 per bottle they would not be without it. Besides which, it is a certain cure for Cuts, Burns, Headache, Toothache, Sore Throats, Swellings, Mumps, Colic, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Spasms, Old Sores, and Pains in the Back and Chest. No one once tries it who is ever without it. It is warranted perfectly safe to take internally. Full Directions with every bottle. Sold by the Drugists. Depot, 56 Cortlandt Street New York. feb21ml.

DIED.

WERTZ—In Cumberland valley twp., Feb. 29, 1868, William Wertz, aged 28 years, 4 months and 25 days. The deceased was a young man of commendable moral conduct, a dutiful son, kind and obedient to his parents. He will be sadly missed at our social gatherings, where, by his correct deportment and manly behavior, he won the respect and esteem of all who knew him. Several weeks before he was taken ill he embraced religion, and died in the full hope of a blissful immortality beyond the grave He was followed to his last resting place by a large concourse of sympathizing friends.

COMPOUND BLOOD SEARCHER

This very valuable medicine, which is purely vegetable, has done wonders. It is a never-failing remedy for cleansing the blood. When the blood is pure, disease cannot take hold of the system. I could produce testimonials in regard to what it has effected, but I submit it to the public, guaranteeing that if used according to directions, the result will be GOOD HEALTH. It is my own manufacture.

This medicine will cure Consumption, Dispepsia, Sore Throat, and nine out of ten of all other diseases.

DIRECTIONS FOR USING.—For adults, dose, two tablespoonsfull, three times a day, before meals. Less on the dose according to constitution.

Price :—Quart bottles, $1.00; Pint bottles, 50 cents. JACOB L. HOOVER, FACTS.

That we have unequalled facilities for conducting business to the advantage both of ourselves and patrons, we submit the following TRUTHS—well known as such to the entire business community.

1st. We have abundant cash capital, therefore—
2d. We are enabled to Buy for Cash exclusively, consequently at the lowest possible prices, with the markets of the entire world to select from.
3d. In this particular WE HAVE ADVANTAGES shared by no other house in our business.
4th. We sell for cash exclusively—therefore at the lowest possible prices—having no losses incurred by selling on credit, to provide for.
5th We have a business experience of a quarter of a century, having been longer established than any house in our trade in Philadelphia.
6th. Our business is thoroughly systematized, the result of long experience, which has taught us what the wants of the public are, and how best to meet them.
7th. We employ the best talent in all departments, our garments are therefore unsurpassed in style, fit and workmanship.
8th. Our business is large and constantly, increasing, enabling us to keep at all times the largest, best assorted, and most complete stock of MEN'S, YOUTHS', and BOYS' CLOTHING in Philadelphia, to which large daily additions are made of fresh goods, replacing those sold.
9th. For reasons already enumerated we can, and do sell clothing in every respect superior—surpassed by none, equalled by few—at prices guaranteed in all cases lower than the the lowest elsewhere, or the sale cancelled and money refunded.
10th. If buyers should for any cause become dissatisfied after a purchase is made, if reported within a reasonable time, we pledge ourselves, by exchange, refunding of money, or otherwise, to give full satisfaction in every case, and request that all such may be reported to us for adjustment.

CARD.—Our stock of Fall and Winter Clothing is full and complete, and selling rapidly, but is as rapidly replenished each day with fresh and desirable styles of new goods, purchased recently, for cash, at great sacrifices, enabling us to sell at prices lower than have been known for years. Congratulating our patrons upon the decline of prices, which enables us to offer superior garments at such low rates, we request the favor of a call.

ESTEY'S COTTAGE ORGANS are still ahead of all competitors and stand unrivalled in POWER, PURITY OF TONE and BRILLIANCY, and all other points which go to make a first-class instrument.
The "VOX HUMANA TREMOLO" is the greatest of all modern improvements on reed instruments. It CHARMS and SURPRISES all who hear it, by its wonderful resemblance to the HUMAN VOICE. Do not confound this with the common tremolo in use. It is entirely different, and far superior to any other.

The effect of your "Tremolo" is entirely new to me, and is certainly the best I ever heard.—GEO. W. MORGAN. [The first Organist of America.
No Tremolo has yet been invented that will in any degree compare with this for beauty of effect. In fact, it seems to me to be absolutely perfect.—WM. A. JOHNSON. Pipe Organ Builder.
Estey's Cottage Organs are without a superior for exceedingly quick articulation and round tone—the essential features in instruments of this class—GEO. JARDINE, Pipe Organ Builder.
The Cotttge Organ is the best of its class I ever saw, and the best adapted for church music of any in use.—C. HEINTZ, Organist, Findlay, O.
I am much pleased with the Cottage Organ which I purchased from you; it combines sweetness and power in an unusual degree, and is quite a favorite in our family circle.—BISHOP SIMPSON.
We know no organs of the class which possess so many valuable qualities.—INDEPENDENT.

PROSPECTUS
1868. "THE AGE," 1868
"THE AGE."
A Democratic Daily and Weekly Journal in Philadelphia.
The attention of the Democrats and Conservative-citizens of the country is called to the Daily and Weekly issues of this widely circulated journal. The dissemination of sound political doctrines should command the earnest attention of every true friend of the Union and the Constitution. The events of the past political year are full of significance. The uprising of The People in opposition to the destructive policy of Radicalism, clearly shows that the masses are determined to restore again to power the great Democratic party. every page of whose history is filled with the glory and prosperity of our common country. No more effectual method for presenting the Truth can be devised, than in circulating Democratic journals. It is the intention of the Proprietors of The Age to make it, in every way worthy of the support and confidence that have heretofore been extended to it. Improvements are contemplated in every department, and no pains or expense will be spared to keep it in the front rank of American journalism.
The Daily Age contains the latest intelligence from all parts of the world, with articles on Government, Politics. Trade, Finance, and all the current questions of the day; Local Intelligence, Market Reports, Prices Current, Stock Quotation, Marine and Commercial Intelligence, Reports of Public Gatherings, Foreign and Domestic Correspondence Legal Reports, Book Notices, Theatrical Criticisms, Reviews of Literature, Art and Music, Agricultural Matters, and discussions of whatever subjects are of general interest and importance. Besides Special Telegrams, it has all the dispatches of the Associated Press from every part of the United States, and also the Associated Press dispatches received by the Atlantic Cable; and the news from all parts of Europe brought by the steamers, is instantly telegraphed from whatever point the steamer first touches.
The Weekly Age will be a complete compendium of the news of the week, and besides the leading editorials from the Daily, will contain a large amount of interesting matter prepared expressly for the weekly issue. It will be in all respects a first-class family journal, particularly adapted to the Politician, the Farmer, the Merchant, the Family Circle, and the General Reader, having, in fact, every characteristic of a live newspaper. At an early day will be begun an intensely interesting serial, by one of the most popular and fascinating authors, and it is also the intention to publish, from week to week, in the course of the year, three or four of the best and latest novels.
Terms of the Daily.—One copy, one year, $9.00; six months, $5.00; three months, $2.50; for any less period, at the rate of one Dollar per month. Payment required invariably in advance. Postage on the Daily, thirty cents per quarter, or one dollar and twenty cents per annum, to be prepaid at the office of delivery.
Terms of the Weekly.—One copy, one year, $2; five copies, one year, $9; ten copies one year, $17.50; twenty copies one year, $33. To clubs, where the papers are sent to one address, the following reduction will be made: Five copies, one year, $8.50, Ten copies, 1 year, $16.50; Twenty copies, one year, $30. A copy will be furnished gratis for each club of ten, or more, to one address, for one year. Payment required invariably in advance. Postage on the Weekly, five cents, per quarter, or twenty cents per annum, to be prepaid at the office of delivery
The above terms will be rigidly adhered to. Drafts on Philadelphia, or Postoffice Orders, payable to the order of the Publishers, being safer, are preferable to any other mode of remittance All who send money by Express, must pre-pay Express charges. Specimen copies of the Daily and Weekly sent gratis, on application at this office. Advertisements inserted at moderate rates. Address WELSH & ROBB, 430 Chestnut street. Philadelphia. jan24w4.

MEDICAL.—DR. A. S. SMITH, having resumed the Practice of Medicine, solicits a generous share of the patronage of the community. Office in his residence, at St Clairsville.
He would call the attention of the public, and to those more immediately interested to the following: His health being too delicate to bear much of the fatigues and exposures consequent on general practice, he has adopted a speciality in the profession.
Soon after commencing practice, some twenty years since, he was attracted by the almost universality of female complaints, both in the married and single state. Partly from natural inclination, and in order to obtain success in practice, these complaints were made the subject of incessant study. These alterations, displacements and deranged functions of the organs peculiar to the female, are owing to that refined sense of delicacy on the part of the female, who, ignorant of the consequences, prefers to suffer in silence rather than expose her situation. Seldom cured by the general practitioner, who is prevented by this delicacy from acquiring by experience that tact and skill necessary to discriminate the exact change present, and contents himself with prescribing for the deranged functions, or overlooking the cause, simply for attendant nervous disorders, founding his prescriptions on a Plethoric Anaemonic state of the general system and the result is no benefit, as the number of the long suffering females bears ample testimony. Believing that he has, from long and special attention paid to them, acquired that skill in discriminating and experience in treating, he solicits the suffering to give him a call. No charges for consultation or examination. Visits made to all parts of the county.
Applications for medicines can be made in writing by accompanying stamp for return letter.—Medicines sent when desired. TERMS invariably cash for all medicines and instruments.

THE GREAT CAUSE OF HUMAN MISERY. Just Published, in a Sealed Envelope.—Price six cents.
A Lecture on the Nature, Treatment and Radical cure of SPERMATORRHŒA, or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, Impotency, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, Consumption, Epilepsy, and Fits, resulting from self-Indulgence or Sexual extravagance, &c.—By ROB J. CULVERWELL, M. D., Author of the "Green Book, &c.
The world-renowned author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of Self-Abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife—pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically. THIS LECTURE WILL PROVE A BOON TO THOUSANDS AND THOUSANDS.
Sent under seal, in a plain envelope, to any address, postpaid, on receipt of six cents, or two post stamps. Also, Dr. Culverwell's 'Marriage Guide,' price 25 cents. Address the publishers, 1867.—"THE WORLD."—1867.

The attention of the public is invited to the claims of "The World" as one of the leading public journals of the country. It is the chief organ of the Democratic Party of the United States, and the foremost advocate of the immediate restoration of the Union. Its highest merits consists in its character as an enterprising and trustworthy newspaper.
The next year bids fair to be a more critical one in the history of our free institutions than even any eventful ones that have preceded it. The first requsite for an intelligent judgment of public affairs is a full and authentic account of facts as they transpire. These THE WORLD always aims to give with conscientious accuracy, and with equal fullness and fidelity, whether they make for or against its own views of public policy. Prompt activity in spreading before its readers every kind of news in which any part of the public takes an interest, is the first duty of a newspaper, and the facilities of THE WORLD for discharging this obligation are unsurpassed by those of any journal in the United States. Whatever else it may fail in, it certainly will not fail to furnish the news, nor to supply it with such promptitude, spirit, freshness, abundance, variety, accuracy and candor, that no class of readers can miss anything of interest which they wish to find. THE WORLD will publish documents and arguments prepared by political foes just as freely as those prepared by political friends; making its own comments on them, of course, but never suppressing or garbling them because they are calculated to damage its own party. Adverse arguments, which it cannot refute, it is content to leave to make their full impression. THE WORLD accepts this rule because it believes no other is honest; because it conceives that its first duty to its readers is to keep them thoroughly informed on every passing subject of importance. In politics, THE WORLD will continue to be the bold advocate of a Liberal, Progressive Democracy. The unflinching champion of Freedom, Justice, Order and Constitutional Rights. The inspiration of its politics is Freedom restrained by Justice; or, to speak more strictly, Freedom pure and simple, in the largest collective measure; the office of justice being merely to protect freedom from encroachments; Freedom of the individual citizen in his rights of thought, speech, religion and locomotion; in his Right to choose his own food and drink, in spite of meddlesome temperance laws; in his Right to make any money bargains he thinks proper, in spite of foolish usury laws; in his Right to buy and sell in all markets, domestic and foreign, in spite of unjust protective tariffs; in his Right to representation in the legislative bodies which tax him, in spite of unconstitutional exclusions; Freedom of collective citizens to assemble for discussion of grievances; Freedom of all local communities to manage their local affairs without central interference; Freedom in every section of the country from the arrogant and unconstitutional domination of other sections; this large and comprehensive idea of Freedom sums up the politics of THE WORLD, which will never be found wanting to this capital interest of the country and of the human race.
In its accurate Commercial Intelligence and careful, reliable market reports, THE WORLD will continue to maintain its present high reputation. A paper published in the commercial metropolis is naturally looked to for authentic information relating to trade, commerce and finance; and this being a feature in which the THE WORLD prides itself, it boldly challenges comparison with every journal in the metropolis.
EDITIONS.
The WEEKLY WORLD, a large quarto sheet, same size as Daily, is now printed throughout in large type, and has the largest circulation of any weekly journal published, save one. Its extraordinary success since its union with the New York ARGUS has justified the most liberal expenditures, which will make it unrivalled in interest and value to farmers. Published Wednesday.
1. Its Market Reports embrace the New York, Albany, Brighton and Cambridge Live Stock Markets; the New York Country Produce and General Produce Markets; special and valuable Hop Intelligence; a department of Agricultural Reading; all together composing an unrivalled handbook of current information for the Farmer, Live Stock or Produce Dealer, Country Merchant, &c.
2. A page or more reserved for entertaining Fireside Reading for the Family circle, embracing the freshest and best Stories, Poetry, Religious Reading, etc., and a page for the Discussion of all Prominent Topics of general interest, political agricultural, financial, literary, etc.
3. Its Digest of the News is not, like most weeklies, a mere waste-basket of the Daily; only matters of interest and importance are chosen from the Daily, while the mass of its contents are prepared especially for the Weekly.
In every postoffice district there should be found some active, public spirited Democrat, who will confer a benefit upon us, his neighbors, and the cause, by counseling with his Democratic friends and making a determined effort to form as large a club as possible for the WEEKLY WORLD.
The SEMI-WEEKLY WORLD is a large quarto sheet, same size as Daily, which, by omitting a great mass of city advertisements from the Daily, contains all its news, correspondence, editorials, commercial and market news cattle market and provision reports, and a fresh and entertaining miscellany of literature. Published Tuesday and Friday.
The DAILY WORLD affords a complete compendium of, and commentary upon, the news of every day.
